

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM YOUR UNION

WARNING:

BILLIONAIRE CANDIDATE BRUCE RAUNER
IS BAD FOR CONSTRUCTION WORKERS.

RAUNER IS AN ENEMY OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

In other states, so called "Right-to-work" laws have driven unions out of the construction industry and lowered construction wages.

Rauner wants to move Illinois toward becoming a "Right-to-work" (for less) state to weaken and eliminate unions.

That's why one of the state's most anti-union groups, Contractors for Free Enterprise, the political action affiliate of the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Illinois Chapter, is backing Rauner for governor.¹
